Families of color and multicultural families who are raising or love a person with Down syndrome are invited to a gathering at the Down Syndrome Association of West Michigan's new office that will celebrate the diversity in our community and give families the opportunity to learn more about DSAWM. Complimentary refreshments and activities will be offered at this meet-and-greet event for minority families in a safe and welcoming environment. You do not need to be a DSAWM member to attend. The event will mark the launch of our new 21 Shades support group for families of color and multicultural familieswho are also part of the Down syndrome community. We look forward to meeting you and learning how our organization can support your family!
